

product+ Breakdown

THE VALAYO COLLECTION

By Integra

Photograph by Greg Hughs

Integra has been a family-owned and run business for 35 years, and a nationally certified women-owned enterprise for 14 years. It is identified as a leader in the industry when it comes to functional style, durability, flexibility, and customer service. With that, Integra has always aimed to minimize its impact on the environment through the use of recycled materials, clean processes, and mindful manufacturing.

The latest offering from the company is the Valayo Collection, an ideal combination of striking design with exceptional strength, featuring clean, contemporary styling at its functional best. Read on to find out how it all breaks down. integraseating.com

An Liu received his master's degree in Interior Design from Virginia Commonwealth University. In his design work, he utilizes a concept-driven approach. Liu's portfolio can be found at an-liu.com.

2

*design choices for chairs and benches:
with arms or armless*

4

tabletop materials to choose from: Solid Surface, Beech Block, veneer over a solid wood edge, and laminate over a solid wood edge

100

percent of products are made to order in Integra's Wisconsin facility

3

*width options: 26-inch, 32-inch,
and 46-inch chairs; 26-inch, 46-inch,
and 72-inch benches*

5

*metal finish options: solid steel arms and legs
with finish choices of brushed chrome, or powder
coat colors of black, gray, bronze, and taupe*

2,000

pound weight capacity of nearly all chairs from Integra

100

percent of seating offerings feature replaceable or recoverable parts

15

seating and table offerings

0

cardboard-box packaging waste on standard shipments. (All standard shipments are sent blanket-wrapped, and blankets are reused.)

Photographs by Dave Rigg & Robert Baitie

Photograph by Greg Hughs